

THEREFORE I AM

BILLIE EILISH

The reasons for which we chose the song

Because it has deep meaning and is about a theme very important body shaming, because let it out autonomously, and give charge the people the insult

Metaphors

"Your world isn't real"

- The author intends that he has an idea of the world not real

"We're on different lines"

- The author intends that are too different

The story behind the song

The piece is a hymn to freedom, it talks about philosophy and has a profound message to spread.

It is a spontaneous, different, free piece, it breathes new music and wants to be against the rules. It breaks the preconceptions, makes it clear that we are worth more than what others think of us.

In short, in the song there seems to be just about everything! Philosophy, rhythm, attack and revenge.

Our history

This is our story.

We saw the video of the song and by combining everyone's ideas we were able to write our prequel.

Once upon a time, in a distance village a girl was arguing with her boyfriend for fault of a her friend.

Once the quarrel is finish she sneaked in a shopping center that was closening, take a food but a guard saw her. She escaped from the guard.
